

City Lights

Volume 263

March 29, 1985

As a continuation of the budgetary process, the City of Grand Junction has retained Profit Motivators International to assist several city departments in the streamlining of work procedures and the establishment of guidelines for work processing and customer service.

The initial phase of the program will take ten calendar weeks of on-site review by the P.M.I. representatives.

Profit Motivators is a management consulting firm based at 40 Linden, Boulder Colorado. The company has assisted numerous organizations in the development of quality control and staff management programs through the development of in-house tailor-made systems and on-site training sessions. The P.M.I. approach is to bring the most effective management skills to its clients.

THE PUBLIC GRUBSTAKE

The Official Newsletter of the Colorado Government Finance Officers Association

June 1985

Vol 1, No. 3

As a continuation of the budgeting process, the City of Grand Junction has retained the services of Profit Motivators International, a Colorado based management consulting firm.

During the initial 10-week phase of the study, PMI is streamlining work procedures, developing fee schedules, establishing guidelines for work processing and customer service in Police Records, Accounting, Municipal Courts, and the City Clerk's office.

To ensure the continuity of the results obtained during the study, PMI is conducting training sessions to develop effective management skills in the supervisory levels.

For additional information regarding the services currently available through PMI, call 303-444-1311, or write them at 40 Linden, Boulder, CO 80302.